Sir,

Sub:- Poultry - Poultry Production in selected villages - Kinajoli - Supplies ordered and dispatched - Orders requested.

Ref: Rec. No 3178-B1-51 dated 6.8.52 of the Poultry development officer Madras.
& G.O. No. 501 dated 18.5.51.

As per G.O. No 501 dated 18.5.51 the foundation stock of birds ~~must~~ should be given hens & cocks. At the time of opening of the Poultry unit at Kinajoli the Poultry Development Officer Madras supplied 12 birds costing Rs 58. Out of these birds 5 are now found to be cocks & the rest the hens. In a reference made in this connection to the Poultry Development Officer Madras in the report dated above, that he could not distinguish the sex of the birds at the time of dispatch to Kinajoli as they were too young; and the suggestion that extra cockerels may be supplied to the

In this connection I

-that- permission may be accorded to the disposal of the excess Cockerels to the Poors of Kapilkud Harijan Colony at ½ rate. i.e Rs 3 (Three) per Cockerel for grading up Gowlig Breed. The Veterinary Department sells a Cockerel @ Rs six per bird.

Copy of the Report of the Gowlig Development officer refers to above is enclosed.

Ref :- Read letter from Poultry Mainsky - Kiringshi
dated 4-1-52

Regarding the birds sent to Kiringshi, they were only chicks and were not sure of their sex at the time of despatch. If they are adult birds, we can foresee their sex. Adult birds were not available then for sending. If you are keen to have the three Rhode Island Red fullets, you can have them within the course of this month. Kindly remit Rs. 30/- towards the cost of birds, packing and freight charges. The record of birds, packing and freight charges. The records referred to may be distributed to the people in the future for grading of poultry on a heading

Yours faithfully

O.N. In his letter on page 1 cq. the RNO. Tellicherry stated that out of the 12 birds sent to him for the poultry unit sanctioned in GO. Rt. No. 501-RN dt 18-5-51. by the poultry devt. officer, there were 5 cocherels and 7 hens as against 2 cocherels and 10 hens sanctioned in the GO. for unit. It is reported that the excess number of cocks sent for the unit was due to the inability to determine the sex of the birds due to their tenderage when they were despatched. It is reported that the poultry devt. officer suggested the disposal of the excess birds to the villagers. The RNO. has reported that he may be permitted to sell the excess birds i.e. 3 cocherels to the poor villagers of Scheduled Harijan colony at half rate. i.e. Rs 3 each in lieu of at Rs 6/- at which rate they are sold by the Vet. Dept. The total loss involved as a result of selling the 3 birds at half rate will be nugatory if it may be for acceptance of the draft.
